This is your pastor's confession: I am a frail human. There are only so many hours in the day. I have used them up for this month. This prayer came across my Facebook feed just when I needed it. I pray it also feeds you. May God be with you and bless you in every way.
Pastor Dorothy.

A PRAYER FOR OUR HOMES

A prayer for the homes that have held us all year,
houses, apartments, nursing home rooms,
the couches of friends and relations.

A deep bow of respect to the kitchen table that became a classroom,
the closet-turned-office, the dining room gym,
the concrete basement where, between the litter box and mops,
we made a small altar,
a sanctuary where, with earphones and a stack of towels,
we found a sliver of essential solitude,
the sacred, not-quite-silence of the washer's cycle ("mountain stream"), and the thrumming heartbeat of the dryer.

A prayer for the homes that have held us all year –
cups of tea and blankets, enough wifi almost always.

"If I'd known you were coming, I'd have vacuumed, done the dishes, gotten round to those repairs," said the house, apologetic, flustered, when a year ago we knocked on our own door.
Patiently, a perfect host, it swept us in like prodigals,
and kept us safe and warm.
Housebound now for months, we complain of cabin-fever,
cursing our confinement and bouncing off the walls.

Just beyond the windows,
beyond imagining, in fact,
encampments bloomed by bridges, frozen to the ground,
filled the city parks with desperation,
(and also ingenuity, community). Tents and tarps and boxes housing human lives, sheltering as best they could the dignity of people, their beauty and their bodies and their worth.
You could choose to see this or ignore it, if you had a home to go to.
We're still choosing now.

A prayer for the homes that have held us all year-
what have we learned there of shelter and safety, mutual aid?
What have we learned about family,
justice,
and love?

HOLY WEEK

"A new command I give you: Love one another" John 13:34a

Maundy Thursday: Jesus gives us a "new commandment" to love one another. Jesus gives us a "new covenant".

Good Friday: How can we call this Friday "Good"?

This is the "good news", the glory of God is in the cross of Jesus.

Holy Saturday: We hold a vigil, waiting to tend to the body of the Savior, but something happens in the night...

CHRIST IS RISEN! ALLELUIA!

Prepare your home worship space for the week:

Have your Bible ready, not all readings will be printed in the service folder.

Set your communion table for Maundy Thursday and Easter Sunday.

Maundy Thursday: Prepare a hand washing space. This could be hand sanitizer or a bowl and water.

Good Friday: Place a cross prominently in your worship space

Holy Saturday: Light a new fire, a candle in a jar, a votive candle, the fireplace, be creative

Easter Sunday: Set your table with your finest linens, flowers, crosses and icons

Topic: Book Study and Anti-Racism Discussion

The Warmth of Other Suns* by Isabelle Wilkerson

It's a scary topic and this gathering of faithful followers of Jesus is a safe place to bring your questions, raise doubts, be honest and be loved. We will start a new book study on Thursday, April 15th. Please prayerfully consider joining as we begin the study of "The Warmth of Other Suns" by Isabelle Wilkerson. It is an historic novel chronicling the Great Migration, based on the stories told by three individuals and their families. Ms. Wilkerson spent 10 years researching and interviewing people before she wrote this highly acclaimed book.

Every Thursday, Doors "open at 6:30pm.

CTK PRESCHOOL NEWS

During March our TTH and MWF classes celebrated 'Read Across America' (a national week focused on books and reading). We had fun with St. Patrick's Day and Leprechauns! We learned about Gardens and Spring! We will end the month learning the meaning of Easter. The MWF class looks forward to Mondays when Pastor Dorothy joins our class for Chapel time. You can see all the fun on our Facebook page: Christ the King Preschool-Tigard. Please "like" us to see what we are up to each month.

Thrivent members please consider Christ the King Preschool for your Thrivent Choice Dollars. Christ the King Preschool is one of the choices on the Thrivent website. Christ the King church members can also donate to CTK Preschool by just designating it on their offering envelopes.

Any questions please contact: Heidi Livingston, Director, Christ the King Preschool 503-333-5331. Director@christthekingpreschool.com

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

Continue to set aside non-perishable food for the Cascade Vineyard Church food bank. Stop by the church and drop it in the barrel outside the office doors. Bless you!

PROPERTY & GROUNDS

My gratitude to all who signed up to be on the mowing team this year. I appreciate each of you and all you do so much.

Spring Cleanup Day has been changed to a general work and repair day to be held on Saturday, June 5th, beginning at 9:00am until dark or the last person leaves! Please consider coming and spending some time helping with needed property and grounds upkeep. There are always projects to be done around a building and property of this size.

There are still two garden boxes available for planting if anyone is interested in doing some gardening this spring. Contact me to get more information at gkleins@comcast.net or 503-318-9637.

Giving

Thank you for your generous contributions to the work of the church. Giving options remain the same in the New Year:

First, mail a check to the church office.

Second, use your online banking bill pay.

Third, set up an automatic payment through our third-party giving platform, Vanco. Use the link on our website www.tigardlutherans.com to set this up

(if you need help setting this up, give a call to the church office.)

Fourth, click on the "donate" button on our website to make a single contribution through Vanco.

QUILT GROUP RESUMES

If you are able to stab fabric with a needle and use scissors, you qualify for our quilt group!! April 20th, Tuesday, join us between 9-9:30am – 11:30am. We will meet first and third Tuesdays of each month. Wear a mask and sanitizer will be available. Questions? Leave a message for Gloria: 503.590.5759.

Hope you can join us!!

GREAT HOPE!

We have been through a year of incredible challenges, and yet we have persevered, and we can all look ahead with great hope.

No matter what the circumstance, because Jesus Christ has overcome the grave, we always have a living hope.

Our hope is captured by the Easter proclamation, "Christ is risen, He is risen indeed!"

There is no height, nor depth, nor famine, nor war, nor pandemic virus that can separate us from His love or change our hope in Him.

May this Easter be a time of hope for you and your loved ones. May the peace of God be with you this Easter and always.
