Christ is risen! Alleluia!

I was devastated when I heard the news that my sister had died. On the 20-mile drive across town, I could scarcely see the road at times through my tears. In the midst of our grief, my two nieces and I tended to the immediate details. One called the pastor, the other called the funeral director and we shared the task of notifying our large extended family. I called each of my five brothers. I was surprised by their collective cavalier response "well, it's not like we didn't know this day was coming".

Jesus told the disciples, more than once, that he would be arrested, tried and put to death. He assured them that he would be raised from the dead on the third day. Yet, it was a shock to them when he was arrested. One of them turned him over to the authorities, one of them denied knowing him and the rest scattered into the night. The women stood vigil at the foot of the cross. A secret disciple, Joseph of Arimathea, took Jesus' body from the cross and laid it in a borrowed tomb while the women secretly watched.

When the Sabbath observance was ended, the women solemnly walked to the tomb. Their grief was so deep that they did not even consider how they would roll away the heavy boulder that blocked the entrance. Arriving just before dawn, they found the stone gone and the grave empty. Shock and fear replaced grief. The whole company of Jesus's followers locking themselves into a house or room where they huddled together, not knowing what to do.

We who stand on this side of the resurrection of Jesus the Christ find it easy to say "well, it's not like they didn't know this day was coming". It is easy to shake our heads at the disciples' seeming lack of understanding. After all, they had a distinct advantage over future believers. Jesus walked among them, taught them, told them what would happen, opened the Scriptures to them and yet, they did not understand.

Easter! It is more than a one-day celebration. It is more than a 50-day season of the church year. It is our daily dying to sin and rising with Christ in the glory of God. There is a traditional hymn by John Bowring that says, "In the cross of Christ I glory, towering o'er the wrecks of time". Because of Christ's death on the cross and glorious resurrection we find "peace . . . that knows no measure, joys that through all time abide".

Knowing that her life on earth was coming to an end, my sister proclaimed with the confidence of a child of God, "I am not afraid to die, I know where I'm going...I will be with Jesus". Easter People, this is the promise of the resurrection: we are claimed by God because of the life, death and resurrection of Jesus the Christ. We know hope, for the Easter season but for eternity.

Lift your voice and shout with joy:

Christ is risen! Alleluia!

Pastor Dorothy

CRISTO REY

The regular members of Cristo Rey who worship en espanol are in the midst of assessing the community's needs and wishes regarding worship time and day. Padre Beto Arciniega of the Episcopal Diocese of Oregon is working to help us find a Spanish-speaking rostered leader to be the long-term supply pastor of this ministry. Please continue to pray for our members who worship at the second service of Cristo Rey/Christ the King.

Here is the information with the links for coming to events being held on Zoom.

The MWF class looks forward to Mondays when Pastor

Dorothy joins our class for Chapel time. You can see all the fun on our Facebook page: Christ the King Preschool-Tigard. Please "like" us to see what we are up to each month.

Thank you also to their Teacher, Jason Normansen and to Steve & George for working alongside them. What a blessing!!

QUILTERS*SOMETHING TO CONSIDER

While Christ the King's Quilting Group has been quite active, the recent years have seen a decline in quilting volunteers, so much so that its future is in jeopardy. We will finish in April by packing our quilts for their send off early in May to Lutheran World Relief. The question is whether we will begin again in September???. Right now the answer would be probably be no. We need volunteers so that we can continue.

Please consider joining the Quilting Group. We meet the first and third Tuesday of each month from 9 am to 11:30am. When the call comes in September, we hope that you, yes you, will be joining us! For questions call, Gloria Barnum at 503-593-1266.
